Leadership Programme

Leadership, whether in the private, public or third sectors, requires a specific range of skills. No matter what level you are working, an awareness of good modern leadership practice and the confidence to use these new skills can help you move forward in your career and make a positive impact on those around you.

This Leadership Programme provides you with a range of skills to help you make the most of these opportunities.

The learning is based in a learning environment, but it's not a classroom. There are no lectures, textbooks, or long PowerPoint presentations. Instead you will do lots of short challenges and then reflect on what you have learned.

Why should I attend?

- Join with a group of people at similar stages in a friendly and motivational setting
- Find out about your own strengths
- Grow in confidence as you build on these strengths

Programme Outline

- Module 1 Co-coaching & peer mentoring
- Module 2 Self leadership
- Module 3 Emotional intelligence
- Module 4 Working in a team
- Module 5 Motivation

Who is it for?

This programme is aimed at anyone early in their career, perhaps in new job or facing new challenges. All welcome, no matter whether you work in the public, private or third sector.

Location, Duration, and Fees

The programme starts on October 1 & 2 and takes place for 2 days every 2 weeks until the end of December. It is a fully funded 12-day programme, so there is no cost to you.

We will do a range of action learning exercises, such as co-coaching, active listening and action learning sets. We will develop team work skills in a range of little challenges. We might also visit enterprises or use drama to help us think about different leadership situations.

Will I get a qualification?

Yes! On completing the programme its possible to achieve a Leadership for Social Enterprise Award or Leadership Certificate with the Institute of Leadership and Management.

The Social Enterprise Academy is quality-assured and accredited by the Institute of Leadership and Management
